

Dear Ministry Leaders:

Excellent – how else could I possibly describe Upright Ministries to you? It is my pleasure to recommend this fine organization to churches who are serious about risk management, streamlining processes, and care about their ministries. We at First Baptist of Lutz were seeking for professional advice and training in the critical areas of risk management in general with an emphasis in security for the children who are on our campus. Our campus is very busy with various ministries. We are challenged with a campus that is bisected with a very busy feeder thoroughfare.

Thank you Patti Malott for coming to the rescue. The conference was well attended, well received and highly recommended by all who were in attendance.. The information was professionally taught, biblically based, comprehensive and embraced by all attendees. The presentation was absolutely "right on" every step of the way. The Power Point and the hand-outs were informative and instructive. There was not a wasted moment during any sessions of the conference.

Our Security, Education and Facilities teams developed and implemented risk management measures based on the instruction received from Upright Ministries. We have found our young couples sharing eagerly with the friends how First Lutz is a safe place for children in particular and families in general. Portions of our education space have been reconfigured based in part on the risk management information received at the conference. Comfort, safety, security – expressed in terms of growth spiritually, physically and numerically are just some of the blessing we received as a result of Upright Ministries.

I am certain you will find Upright Ministries a valuable contributor to the ministries of your church. I heartily recommend Patti Malott to you.
